

Honouring the memory- advancing professional nursing

Dear Sir/Madam

Thank you for your interest in applying for the Centaur Memorial Scholarship. Please find below the application form, criteria for selection and conditions relating to the Scholarship.

The Committee requires your application to be emailed as one document. Your application is evaluated by an Expert Panel that makes recommendations for the award of the Centaur Scholarship. The Panel's decisions, which include rankings for each application, are forwarded to the Centaur Management Committee. Applications close on the first business day in October each year.

You will expect to receive an email confirmation of the submission of your application within 10 working days of your submission. If you do not receive this email, please advise via admin@centaurnursesfund.org.au

You will be notified of the outcome of your application by the end of February.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have questions about your application or the conditions of the award.

With best wishes,

Sue

Susan M De Vries

Honouring the memory- advancing professional nursing

The Centaur Memorial Fund for Nurses Philosophy

The Centaur Memorial Fund for Nurses is dedicated to preserving and maintaining a living Memorial Scholarship in honour and remembrance of nurses who served in the Australian Defence Forces at home and abroad. The Scholarship is dedicated to the promotion and continuing development of knowledge and scholarship in the nursing and midwifery professions.

CENTAUR SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

The Centaur Postgraduate Scholarship of a maximum of $15,000 is awarded annually to a Queensland nurse or midwife who is undertaking a Professional Doctorate or a Doctor of Philosophy in nursing or midwifery or a related discipline.

Eligibility

To be eligible for the Centaur Scholarship the applicant must:

- be a resident in Queensland
- hold an unconditional licence to practice as a nurse or midwife in Australia
- have successfully achieved their Confirmation of Candidature.
- at the 1st March next year, have a minimum of 12 months full time equivalent [ie 24 months if part-time] remaining in your candidature

Assessment

Please provide all of the information requested in the application form, and address each criterion listed as one document.

A subcommittee of the Management Committee of the Fund initially completes a desk audit of all applications to determine eligibility. Complete applications will be evaluated by an expert panel of senior academics selected from nursing or midwifery programs from Queensland universities. The Panel's recommendations will be forwarded to the Management Committee who makes the final decision.

Please note: the Committee's decision is final and discussion will not be entered into with any applicant.

Important dates:

Applications close on the first business day of October each year. The Scholarship winner will be announced at the Annual General Meeting of the management Committee held in April each year.

Please submit by email your completed application with supporting material as ONE document to the email address below with the Subject Heading: "Centaur Scholarship application"

CONDITIONS OF THE SCHOLARSHIP

- The value of the Centaur Scholarship is up to $15,000, and is disbursed in three payments of $5,000. The first payment is presented at the time of the announcement of the Award usually at the Annual General Meeting of the Fund.
- The second payment of $5,000 will be made the following year upon receipt of evidence of progress via the yearly progress report. The final payment will be made upon the successful conferment of the PhD/professional doctorate and accepted final project report. Payment is contingent upon the provision of this evidence.
- The successful applicant is required to provide evidence to substantiate major expenditure during the term of the Scholarship, in accordance with the budget submitted at the time of application.
- For auditing purposes expenditure must be substantiated by a Statutory Declaration and itemised in broad categories such as: living expenses; university fees; data collection equipment; teaching or clinical time relief; travel; conference registration; books; and other supplies incurred for your research and in line with your budget.
- The Scholarship is terminated in the event of cessation of the student's candidature, in which case any unspent monies should be returned to the Fund.
- The Scholarship may be suspended if a candidate defers their studies, and continuance will be subject to the decision of the Management Committee.
- Publication and conference presentations related to the research should acknowledge the Centaur Memorial Fund for Nurses.
- On completion of the PhD/professional doctorate the successful applicant may be asked to present a summary of their research at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) of the Centaur Memorial Fund for Nurses or other professional forum that may be negotiated by the Centaur Management Committee and the awardee.
- On being awarded a PhD/professional doctorate and the Committee's acceptance of the final report the Scholarship recipient may use the post nominal of Centaur Fellow.
- Centaur Fellows are encouraged to contribute to the ongoing work of the Fund.

Honouring the memory- advancing professional nursing

Recipients who fail to complete doctoral studies are not entitled to be known as a Centaur Fellow.

Declaration:

I have read and agree to the conditions of the scholarship outlined above if I am successful in being awarded the Centaur Memorial Fund for Nurses Scholarship.
